Wachusett Regional High School A
371.8 MOU 2004 7733

Dear Seniors,

There are certain things in life that we simply have to see to believe. Our senior year and our experience here at Wachusett Regional High School definitely fall under that category. As we move forward into our futures, it is likely that we will be unable to put into words, the everlasting impact that the past four years have made. It will be a challenge to describe the overwhelming population, the enthralling knowledge shared between students and their teachers, and the incredible and unforgettable bonds that we have formed with one another. We have such great memories of sports games, proms, classes, teachers, and accomplished goals. We'll remember the small things; the way someone smiled, a joke that never got old, or pulling that vital all-nighter. But how can we put these memories into words? It cannot be done. You have to see it, to believe it...

Seeing is Believing

We Believe...

We've seen each other through it all. As freshmen, we were nervous, yet anxious to make new friends. Sophomore year, we were more comfortable with each other and the school. We took MCAS and started driving. Junior year we thought we were bigshots. We were upperclassmen. We took SATS and thought about prom and our futures.

Senior year was clearly set apart from the rest. We have proven that all things are possible; and all you have to do is believe. We truly are a success in every way, shape and form. We should be so proud of ourselves. Now, here is something you definitely have to see to believe, the incredible Class of 2004...

Left: If you're hungry, need a laugh or protection just see Kim Brunelle, Cassie Hughes, Brianna Gentile or Lynn Zambetti

BELIEVE IT!

Class

Officers

They believed in hard work...and we can see the results!

Right: Class Officers Joshua Brooks, Michaela Thayer, Holly Wesche, and Leah Sundin have guided us through our senior year. From collecting class dues, to planning fundraisers these four individuals have taken the lead in running our class.

President

Josh Brooks

Proving you don't have to be popular to be President!

Vice President

Kala Thayer

Always calm under pressure.

Treasurer

Holly

Making a difference ... one due at a time!

Secretary

Leah Sundin

Writing, typing, organizing...this girl does it all!

Class

Advisors

We envisioned an unforgettable Senior year...

Left: Class Advisors Ms. Lavadiere, Ms. DiLeo, Ms. Lojko, Mr. Cauoette, Ms. Foss, and Ms. Madelle believed in our class throughout our years at Wachusett and supported us with Prom, Float, a Class Trip and all our endeavors.

Class Administrator:
Ms. Lojko

... and they believed we could make it happen!

Ms. DiLeo

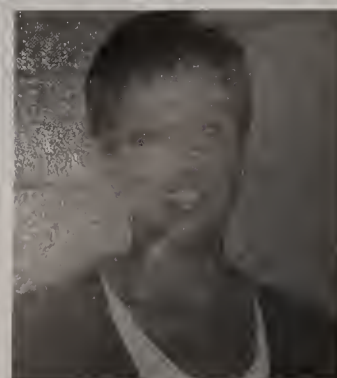

Ms. Lavadiere

Mr. Cauoette

Mrs. Madelle

Ms. Foss

Remember When...

We all know the famous line that parents love to use when relating childhood memories, "back in my day". So here's a chance for us to look at our pasts back in our day when lunch cost $1.50 and the bathrooms were never locked.

Far Above: Dave Socha shows Albert Einstein how great it was when lunch cost $1.50!

Above: Laura DiVirgilio remembers what it was like to choose any locker she wanted.

Right: Ryan Hinson is amazed to find an open bathroom.

“ I remember when the bird flew into the cafeteria. Everyone was in suspense about its fate, but the result was inevitable, death. Unfortunately he chose a closed window. ”
- Danielle Turcotte

“ I remember when the bathrooms used to be unlocked. Now it takes longer to locate an open bathroom than time actually spent within it. At least we get our exercise. ”
- Katie Ober

“ I remember when I thought high school would last forever. You walk in as a freshman thinking you'll have all the time in the world, but now as a senior you realize four years wasn't nearly enough. ”
- Melissa Follett

Remember
When...

Lunch was $1.50?

Remember
When...

Every bathroom was unlocked?

Remember When...

The bird flew into the cafeteria?

Remember
When...

It seemed like high school would last forever?

Remember
When...

We could choose our own lockers?

Seeing is Believing

They'll See...

Being an underclassmen is a progression. It goes from carrying backpacks to carrying four books at a time, to carrying simply what is needed for one class. It is a progression from freshmen dances to proms, or getting rides from the 'rents to driving to school.

They go from taking the MCAS to SATS. They go from that first summer job, to planning out their future careers. It is exciting, challenging, and unforgettable! The seniors believe that WRHS is being left in good hands.

Seeing is Believing

They Saw Our Potential...

They say that a teacher is remembered by about one thousand of his or her students. Let us never forget the teachers who inspired us to reach our fullest potential and believed in us to fulfill our dreams. For the past four years, the administration kept us in line.

Guidance kept us organized. The WRHS custodial staff kept our halls clean, and the cafeteria staff kept us fed and very happy during a long-awaited lunch break. The Class of 2004 thanks the entire faculty for everything they've done for us.

Administration

Dear Class of 2004:

On behalf of the entire Wachusett Community, I want to extend best wishes and congratulations to the members of the Class of 2004. You have attended Wachusett during a very trying time in our school's history and you have achieved a great deal despite the obstacles with which you have been confronted. You will leave Wachusett, however, with the knowledge that your Class will be the last to graduate from our antiquated facility. And you will also graduate during a school year that marks an additional renaissance for our school. This year the New England Association of Schools and Colleges made their ten-year visit to our school and found favorable conditions that will merit the restoration of school's accreditation status.

So it seems that the Class of 2004 will leave Wachusett better than they have ever found it. Your contributions to our school have been greater than your mere presence during a time in which some of our long-standing problems were rectified. Your work on our stage, our playing fields, our art rooms, and in our classrooms rival those of many fine classes that have come before you. As your principal, I commend you and salute your accomplishments. I hope that you will reflect fondly on your years at Wachusett, and you can be assured that you will be remembered by all with whom you have worked.

Sincerely,

Day in the Life of the Top Ten Teachers

Top row from left to right:

Mr. Magnani really gets into teaching his students about WWI.

Mr. Handfield and Allison Frechette welcome the students into the Homecoming Dance 2003.

Mr. Tarmey spends his spare time teaching and learning the guitar with fellow students.

Patti Nummelin and Brianna Gentile catch up with Ms. Fink while on her way to eat a healthy lunch.

Mr. Hilton gets students excited about history class.

All of the students look enthusiastic about chemistry with Mr. Guerin.

Ms. Worthy is always available for extra help with her students.

Maribeth Worthy

Ms. Worthy's motivation to become a teacher "stems from a sense of social commitment." She believes that every person has a responsibility to "give back" to this world. Her inspiration came from her favorite teacher, Mr. William Gagnon, as well as her son, Michael. Her ultimate inspiration is the many students, who she has enriched with knowledge throughout her years of teaching. The saying that gets Ms. Worthy through the day is, "Life moves pretty fast, if you don't stop and look around once in a while, you could miss it!" -Ferris Bueller

Kenneth Mammone

Mr. Mammone had never originally planned to become a teacher. He needed a job, and wanted the summers off. He always thought that education was an "inherently moral activity." His inspiration came from Henry D. Thoreau, Herman Melville, and on occasions, Timothy Leary. Jean Williams, a WRHS retiree, was also a great inspiration. "They [his students] were put here for my amusement," is what Mr. Mammone often tells himself to get through the day.

Ms. Goddard's motivation to become a teacher was "every other Friday, July and August." But, "seriously now folks, my students!" Mary Ann Simencen and Mary Lou Lordan were two former teachers, as well as her brother Michael, who were all a great inspirations for her in life. The saying that gets Ms. Goddard through the day is, "I believe every person has a heart and if you can read it, you can make a difference." -Uli Derickson.

Maura Goddard

Mr. Tarmey's motivation to become a teacher is "being able to talk about books and get paid for it too!" His greatest inspirations to become a teacher came from "The Big Three." Mr. Hedlund, Mr. Mammone, and Mr. Reynolds. The saying that gets Mr. Tarmey through the day is, "Do you want fries with that?" His funny, unique sense of humor has greatly contributed to the endless reasons why he is one of the top ten teachers.

Christopher Tarmey

Jason Hilton

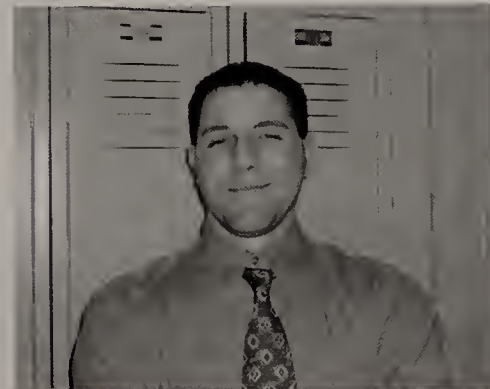

Mr. Hilton's motivation to become a teacher was his "desire to make the world a better place by having a positive impact on other human beings." His greatest inspiration "came from the support and love of my family as well as several influential teachers I had when I was younger." The saying that always seems to help him get through the day is, "Never end your search for knowledge, truth, and light." Mr. Hilton's enthusiastic teaching style is one of his many qualities that make him one of the top ten teachers.

Casey Handfield

Mr. Handfield's motivation to become a teacher "came from my desire to have an impact on the lives of young people in the same manner that my teachers had on mine. It's important to have someone help kids through the trials and tribulations of high school." His inspirations vary from his grandmother, Charlotte DiAntonio, his high school football coach, Dennis Pierozzi and his parents, James and Hellen Handfield. The saying that gets him through the day is, "2:15 is only a few bells away."

Mr. Magnani's motivation to become a teacher was "the incredibly high paying salary, profit sharing, flex time, stock options and holiday bonuses." Who was his biggest inspiration? "My Holy Cross Ice Hockey Coach, Paul Pearl, whose vision, approach and philosophy I apply everyday towards life." Mr. Magnani always says, "Never lose the ability to laugh, a sense of humor is vital to longevity in the teaching profession." Reminding himself of this helps get him through his day.

Kevin Magnani

Ms. Fink's motivation to become a teacher was the fact that she likes to interact with students. Her biggest inspiration was her mother; who "was a teacher, did it well, and was very respected by all her students." What gets her through the day? "The students' smiles, waves and hello's and visits back to my classroom and office make it all really special and fun."

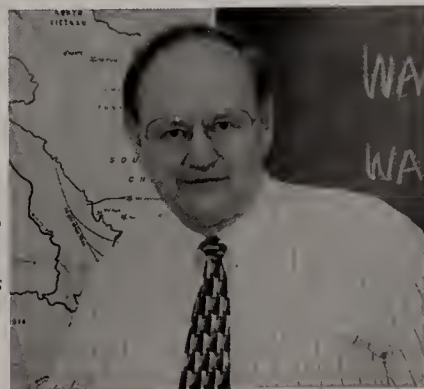

Anne Finkelstein

Nicholas Guerin

Mr. Guerin's motivation to become a teacher was not only because he wanted the "summers off. Seriously I wanted to give something to students that made their first year of college easier." The sayings that help him get through his day are, "he who suffers, remembers." and that "I get paid the same amount no matter what grades you guys get."

Mr. Corriveau

During his many years at Wachusett, Mr. Corriveau had always taught his classes beginning with three simple rules: Never chew gum in class, make sure all hats are off, and be quiet and ready when the bell rings. He will always be remembered fondly by the students who were fortunate enough to have him as a teacher. We wish him well as he enjoys his first year of retirement.

Media Center and Monitors

The Media Center and staff helps everyone find exactly what they're looking for; from online research to the hundreds of books that are available. Even if it's a last minute project that needs to get finished the Media Center Staff is always available to help. The monitors keep everyone in line by making sure that they are where they're supposed to be. There is never a dull moment in study hall when the monitors are around to liven things up.

The Media Center crew are ready and willing to help teachers and the student body find what they need.

English, Art, & Directed Study

English and Art opened up our eyes to the views of other people from all around the world. From Shakespeare to Salinger and Monet to Dali, we have been inspired to produce our own great works of literature and art.

As sophomores, we were taught the importance of planning our future in Directed Study. Through standardized test preparation, college planning and writing resumes we learned vital life skills.

Over the past four years English, Art and Directed Study have enriched our minds as well as our belief in ourselves.

We can all tell they are working hard in the work room.

Police / Life Skills Partnership Run

On May 6th, the 2nd annual Police / Life Skills partnership run & walk took place. This race is sponsored by the Holden Police Associations. It helps to support the Life Skills Fund as well as the Criminal Justice Program here at Wachusett. The course consisted of a 3.1 mile loop that started at the Holden Police Station and ended at Wachusett Regional High School. Everyone who pre-registered were given t-shirts and those who were the top finishers in each of the eight different age groups were awarded trophies. After the race, pizza and refreshments were provided. It proved to be a great success!

Best Buddy members and their peers start the race.

Still going strong...

And they're off!

Sgt. David Armstrong finishes the race.

Sciences, Business, & Technology

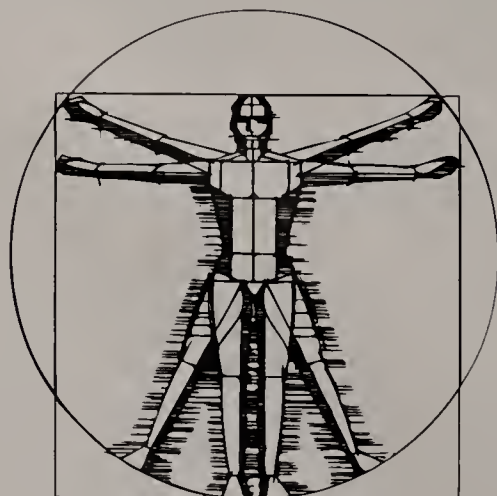

One will never forget the experience of walking down the science hallway. The smell of chemicals, dissected animals, and burnt matches greets you at the beginning of your journey. Our science faculty offers students the opportunity to learn about what really goes on in the world around us.

Business Education and Family and Consumer Sciences teach us valuable skills to take with us after high school. The department also shows students several options of occupations after Wachusett.

Technology Education provided us with a hands on learning experience. By using CAAD and doing our own experiments allowed us to explore technology and take responsibility and realize our capabilities.

Science Fair

The Science Fair is a chance for the students to display and present their independent research projects. The topics at this year's 49th annual science fair ranged from physical science and technology, chemistry, computer science, biology and math. The judges were made up of science professors, members of the community, and former science seminar students. Everyone did an outstanding job.

Math, Music & Health

Sometimes we ask ourselves the question, "When will we ever use math in our future?!" The Math Department answers that question for us. Certain math skills will be vital in our careers, as well as in our everyday lives.

The Music Department is very impressive, considering that only three teachers teach over 300 students. Always preparing for one of their four concerts, beautiful sounds can constantly be heard through their doors.

Finally, the Health Office greets you with a smile whether you go there with a cold or a broken bone. They place the band-aids of WRHS throughout the day.

The Math teachers take it easy on their lunch break, counting the minutes until they have to return to class.

Madrigal Dinner

St. Mary's parish hall was transformed into a Renaissance court for the Music Department's Madrigal Dinner. This recreation of a Renaissance dinner proved to be great success all three of the nights it was presented. There were plenty of colorful banners, red carpets, costumes, and suits of armor to decorate the parish hall. The royal guests (Wachusett Singers) along with the king and queen, sat at the end of the hall. The patrons were served a five course meal by The Wachusett Chamber Choir (royal wenches).

Everyone looks prim and proper while entertaining the patrons.

The costumes and decorations made the play really come to life.

DECA

This year the students participating in DECA went to the State Conference to compete for nationals. The three different areas that the students were competing in consisted of a general marketing test, a test in the certain individuals specific area, as well as role plays. Andrew McDonough, Matt Powers, Rachel Rosenfeld, and Derek Tymen were the four competitors that made it to nationals in Nashville, Tennessee. "This years DECA conference was marked by a lot of skill in comp and a great performance by all of our competitors. I was proud of the whole club." -Andrew McDonough (President)

Guidance & Foreign Languages

Our Guidance department is a very valuable part of our high school experience. Whether it is aiding freshmen in adjusting to a new school, guiding the seniors through the college process, spending hours on scheduling, or lending their emotional support, our guidance counselors are always willing to help.

We are very lucky to have such a strong and diverse Foreign Language department here at WRHS. We are given the incredible opportunity to learn a new language, as well as an entirely new culture.

Special, Alternative & Technology Ed.

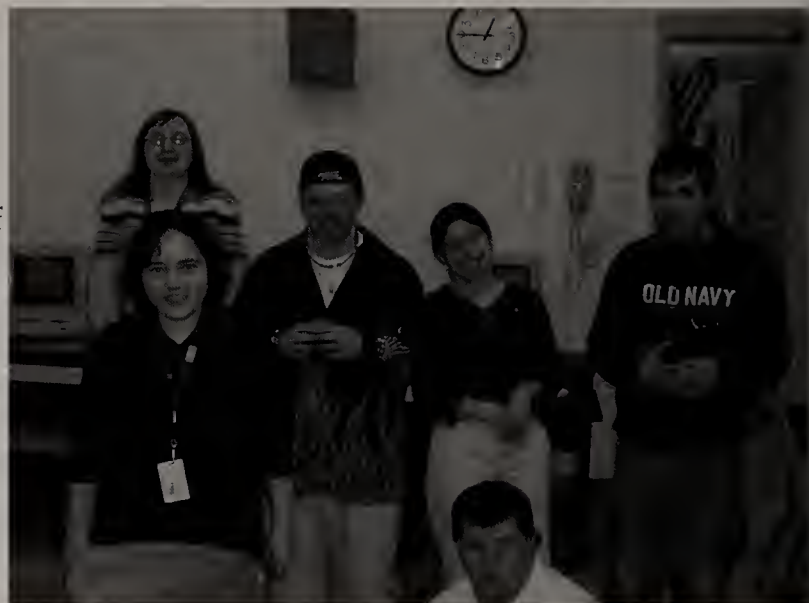

The Special Education Department consists of people with a lot of patience and understanding. Everyone works together to learn and achieve their goals. Social Studies & Phys. Ed.

The Social Studies department at Wachusett has brought history to life. It has enlightened us about the world around us, in past times as well as present. Not only do we learn about historical events, but also about human behavior, interactions and ethical solutions in everyday life. Whether venturing outdoors, competing in team sports or stepping to the beat in aerobics, the Physical Education department always gets our blood pumping. The Phys Ed teachers remind us of the importance of staying physically fit throughout our entire lives.

Custodial & Cafeteria Staff

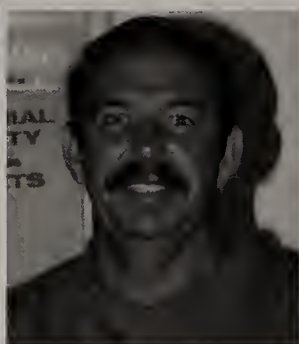

The custodial and cafeteria staff are a crucial part of the Wachusett Regional High School's faculty. The custodians arrive early in the mornings and stay late into the night to keep the school looking its best. We would not make it through the day without the cafeteria staff. Despite the large number of students being served, they always seem to have smiles on their faces. Though we do not always see them, their efforts certainly do not go unrecognized.

Seeing is Believing

They Shared Beliefs...

One would definitely have to see the incredible range and variety of clubs and organizations that Wachusett has to offer, to believe it! The clubs touch upon all areas, such as academics, music, community involvement, and just plain fun.

Also, new clubs are being created all the time! One thing is for sure, there is most certainly not a lack of ways to get involved here at WRHS! The students that get involved share common beliefs and form special bonds with fellow club members.

"I want a page done today!"

Where did this wonderful book of neatly displayed memories and write-ups actually come from? Your local Yearbook staff! Yearbook staff met every week as a group to organize this school and the last awesome four years into chapters that you can now see and believe in! Throughout many times the grueling schedule became a bit hard and you never ceased to hear our threatening announcements every morning demanding for your senior write-ups and club candid. See how it finally paid off, hope you love it!

Bowes' Art Gallery

Erin Berry, Chris Johnson, and Jen Trapasso

Gregory Bowes, one of this school district's most influential teachers, taught at both Holden and Wachusett Regional High School. He retired from his position as art department head in 1982. In the early 90s, as the art gallery was being built, students and teachers were struggling with what to name it. "The Glass Gallery" was considered, but many wanted a name with more meaning. It was then decided that the new addition would be called "Bowes Gallery" in honor of one of the school district's finest.

Student Government

"Be All That You Can Be"

Student Council...a student run and organized group that's number one purpose is community service. Stu.Co. is in charge of organizing all Homecoming activities, all Winter Carnival activities, and a host of other activities that take place at the school such as Spirit Weeks and Principal's Day. Student Council also does a lot of behind the scenes work, such as work at a local soup kitchen called the Mustard Seed and running parties and get togethers for children in the district. Student Council would not exist without the guidance and leadership of the E-Board and the excellent advisors, Mr. Larson and Mr. Handfield.

Model UN goes international!

From March 3rd to March 10th of 2004, the MUN (Model United Nations) Club was invited to participate in the Kingswood School's International MUN Conference. Schools from all over the world competed and we're proud to say that Wachusett was quite comparable to the other delegations. Not only did they receive honorable mention in the General Assembly, but the female delegates received kudos for being the 13th "most fit" delegation. While not debating, student toured around Bath and London with their enthusiastic advisor, Mr. Jourdain. It was a true bonding and learning experience for all who went.

Model United Nations

Model U. N. is a club of diligent, hardworking, motivated and intellectual students who went as far as England to participate in conferences. MUN is an international organization based upon the foundations of international awareness of other nations and the idea that all problems can be worked through by discussion and compromise. Delegates represented countries spanning from Israel to Brazil to Afghanistan. Each member virtually transformed into their nation-state and researched their country, became fully aware of the facts on topics of discussion, wrote position papers, working papers, and eventually resolutions.

Seeing is Believing

They Believe in Fun...

Fun is a strong common belief shared by many of Wachusett's students. Prom will be a lasting memory, as well as Spirit Week and interesting parking lot incidents! We'll always remember those select few who made impressions on our lives, and WRHS, as well.

And who can forget our ridiculously high paying high school jobs or favorite hang-outs? Student life activities will stick with us when we think back to "the good old days," and when we just can't believe we were once this young and FUN!

Junior Prom 2003

Hour of Enchantment

The Junior Prom of 2003 was held on May Tenth at the Four Points Hotel in Leominster, Massachusetts. The theme of the magical evening was "Hour of Enchantment." Receiving the top honors for the night were Evan DeMarco and Amy Follett, who were crowned king and queen of the prom. Rounding out the court were runners up Nick Sachs, Pat Convery, Mike Lynch and Dan Weagle for the guys; Sarah Blatt, Meredith Grabek, Liz Woodruff and Meg Creedon for the girls. The perfect ending for the perfect night was "You Look Wonderful Tonight" by Eric Clapton, making it truly a time to remember.

Top: Even in close quarters, the class still knows how to bust a move.

Bottom: Pre-prom preparation seems to pay off... These couples are looking forward to the night ahead. We hope that's grape juice in those glasses!

Top Left: Juniors dressed to spook for breakfast. Top Middle: Jen Beaudoin in her winning mountaineer gear. Top Right: Junior girls proudly supporting the class of 2005. Bottom Right: Heir to the mountaineer throne, Jakki Leger proves that school spirit runs in the family. Bottom Left: Members of the boys varsity soccer team, Dave Weinstein, Kevin Brisebois, and Ben Conn, pump up the crowd for their impending game.

Class of 2004 Homecoming Floats:

The class of 2004 has been an unstoppable float construction team, winning first place in the parade all four years. The combination of teamwork, creativity, effort and dedication proved to be the formula for success. None of these victories would have been possible without the willingness of the Martin family to lend the class "the garage," thank you! Congratulations to the builders of these great floats!

Top: Our first float, entitled "Shades of Paradise," was the beginning of an empire!!

Bottom: Junior year, we paid tribute to the best season of all, lovely "Fall."

TOTAL DOMINATION

Top: The aspiring stars of the class of 2004 proudly proclaim "Hooray for Hollywood!"

Bottom: Senior year was our "Lucky Charm," we clenched first place, the top honor.

Amy & Melissa Follett

"Freshman year, Amy ran for vice president. To make her stand out, she had me dress in the same outfit and come up on stage with her. She even passed out Double Mint Gum to really get the point across. Her awesome idea worked because she won! We're always a team and we do everything together."

- Melissa Follett

Jen & Matt Powers

"I was wearing my Winter Carnival shoes when Matt asked me to come outside and check the brake lights. The ground was a little slippery, and wouldn't you know it, I slipped and fell right into a snow bank. I started to laugh hysterically, and Matt just shook his head at me and drove away."

Rock Out: Bands from Wachusett

Name: Evertone

Members: Aaron DiBiasio, Jim Gevry, Chris Campbell, Dan Preston & Seth Newton

Type of Music: Hybrid Rock

Just a little info: Formed from many successful local bands from Massachusetts, this final mixture of raw talent, hopes, and dreams came together to take over the local scene. The musical aspect is a mix of thick, heart pounding energy with the beauty and grace of a technical masterpiece. For the past year, Evertone has been growing and increasing their fan base, spreading throughout the Northeast. Continually expanding their collection of songs, Evertone is working towards a potential record deal.

Name: Vertigo

Members: Kim Trutor, Dominic Mazzoli, James Morris, Brice Soucy & Joe Mazzoli

Type of Music: Classic Rock

Just a little info: In the spring of 2003, they had their first gig at the Sterling Battle of the Bands. They recieved the second place prize and a good bit of publicity in the local newspaper. During the summer months, the band continued to jam and write new music such as, "Scream" and "The King." They now have enough songs to release their first CD. Be on the lookout for Vertigo.

Name: Izinhower

Members: Derek Nysten, John Grandlund, Nick Davis, Jeff Soderman & Chris McNamara

Type of Music: Hard Core Metal

Just a little info: This band has played in numerous venues. From the Paxton Summer Jam, a sold out show at the Club Marque, and the Trancebuddah in Shrewsbury, this group has no problem attracting a rowdy crowd. Be sure to look for them in the future.

Wachusett's Optimists: They see the glass half full.

Winter Carnival

2004

Winter Carnival 2004 took place at the usual Worcester Centrum Center on February 7. Student Council did an awesome job running this annual event. The music and atmosphere provided by the DJ was great. A good time had by all!

Below: These kids put down their belongings and fix themselves before entering into the ballroom.

Tom Jones

The story of love, betrayal, and murder.

Left: These cast members won't be disappointed after their play wins the competition!

Below: Caitlin Lahey and Alyson Sutherland look a little nervous awaiting the big opening. The anticipation is growing every second.

The Wachusett Theatre Department placed first in the first round of the Massachusetts High School Drama Guide Festival with their hilarious performance of Tom Jones. They received a bid to the state competition, where they received a standing ovation. This play explores the life of Tom Jones, a foundling, who was discovered as a child and brought into the world of the wealthy class in the 1750's. Tom Jones is lusted after by many women, and that gets him into a bit of trouble with his fiancée. He is also accused of murder by the town that he loves so dearly. Despite the setbacks, Tom Jones ends up happily ever after. The costumes consisted of period pieces, such as petticoats and shawls. Most of these realistic costumes were designed and sewn by talented teachers and students. Congratulations to the cast of the play and the backstage crew, who all did a fantastic job.

A Day in the Life...

See what Wachusett's students do once the school day is done.

Outside of school, there are many different activities in which students like to take part in. Some people spend their time playing sports, while others prefer to help those who are less fortunate. Music is another hobby kids enjoy. Bands practice day in and day out to perfect their sound. Certain kids take up dancing as a way to forget about their stressful day. Making money seems to be a common interest among those who like to spend it. Whether students participate in one or many activities, it's always good to keep busy. Relaxation is overrated anyway!

Monday

"I go horseback riding!"
-Shane Powell

"I either go to softball practice or have a game."
-Deb Noel

Thursday

"I have band practice."
-Joe Bastardo

"I like to go home and have a mid-afternoon snackie-poo."
-Dave Socha

Friday

"We bring pizza to homeless kids."
-Lisa and Sarah

"I volunteer at the Friendly House."
-Eika Kurwahara

Tuesday

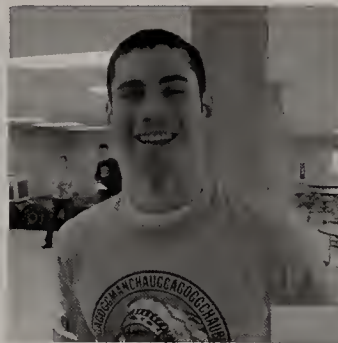

"Swimming is my life. I swim more than I go to school."
-Rhynn Malloy

"I play the saxophone. Now it's about the music, but originally I did it for the chicks."
-Mark Hecox

Wednesday

"I love salsa dancing. It helps me get back to my roots."
-Jesse Rosenfield

"I wait around afterschool for lacrosse practice."
-Cassie O'Connor

Saturday

"I go swing dancing in Boston!"
-Sarah Porter

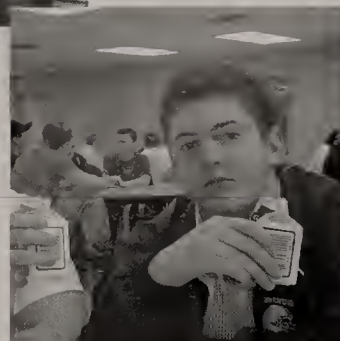

"We hang out and chill with the crew."

Hello

Dolly

'Hello Dolly' is about a young girl who wants to get married. She searches for a guy while funny things happen between her and these guys. Dolly is kind of a mentor for the others. She teaches people how to dance and she mingles with all of the townspeople. This girl is a real class act.

The show was held in May of 2004. All four shows were a huge success and many attended to see the works of the students and teachers. The hard work and long hours of practice really paid off. Congratulations goes out to all those who spent the time and created such a wonderful show!

Left: Their love for the show is apparent. Look at all of these happy faces.

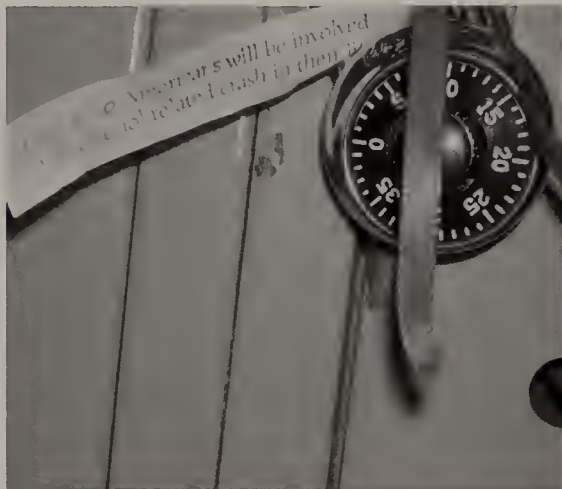

SADD Day

In America, 3 out of 10 people will be involved in a drunk driving accident at some point in their life. SADD Day is an annual event put on for the students organized by SADD which stands for Students Against Drunk Driving. It is used to discourage students from drinking and driving by showing them how one poor choice could effect them or others for the rest of their lives.

"This is a very important time to dedicate a day for students to hear about the consequences of drinking and driving. With prom and graduation coming up, students need to realize that it's important to have a good time, but they must be safe in order to continue to be able to have good times in the future. The goal of SADD is for students, and adults, to think before they act."

-Ryan Hinson & Colleen Brennan

Tied to three out of ten lockers was the frightening statistic that 3 out of 10 people will be involved in a drunk driving accident during their lives.

Bottom Left: The students created a memorial dedicated to a mock death caused by a drunk driving accident.

Above: The speaker inspired the crowd with his amazing artistic skills while explaining the importance of making good decisions.

Particular Pastimes

Far Left: Laura Macera rides her snowmobile. This is her favorite hobby during the winter months. She loves to snowmobile because of the adrenaline rush she gets.

Near Left: Matt Powers enjoys doing puzzles during his free time. He likes to do them because they are fun and challenging to his mind.

Above: Katelyn Sawicki started a charity in her spare time. She plans to become more involved with it during the summer months. The charity is designed to help less fortunate students entering kindergarten obtain school supplies.

Foreign Exchange

Nora Muschinski (Left): "I am from Berlin, Germany. I have done so many great things and met so many awesome people here. My school in Germany is smaller than Wachusett and here I meet someone new everyday. I will always remember the good times like Homecoming, lunches, cross country, dances, and football games."

In Sung Lee (Middle): "I've enjoyed making new friends and learning more about American life while at Wachusett. Although I enjoyed talking to my friends, I had a hard time understanding their jokes. American teens are different than Korean teens because they dress more maturely."

Nataliya Gerassimowa (Right): "My favorite thing about Wachusett is the art department. I spend every free second in the art room. I think that it is great that American schools give students the opportunity to develop their creative skills. Also, the number of different activities offered is amazing. Every Wachusett student can count themselves lucky."

Senioritis: A Case Study

Left: "All day I am off in Space."
-Dave Manning

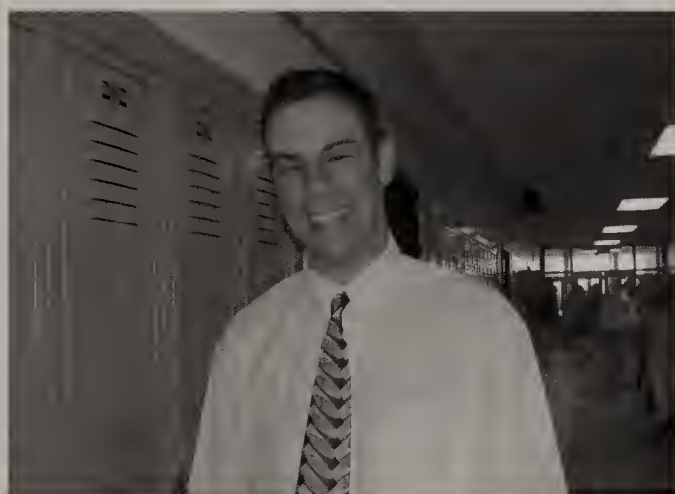

Above: "At least we still have nineteen more days of skirts and tank tops."
-Brad Bagdis

Right: "It looks like I'm working, but that's only for the teacher's benefit."
-Lauren Matysiak

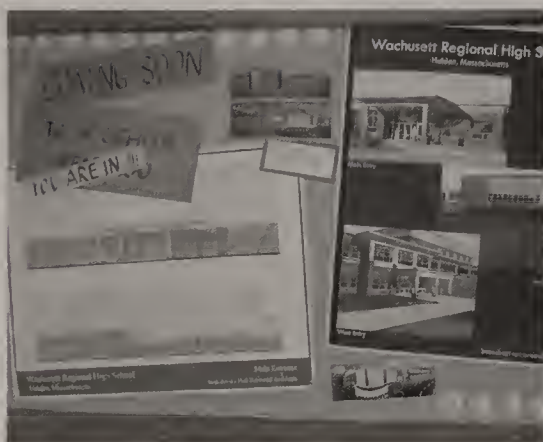

Left: "Senioritis-Inflammation of the senior. I do absolutely nothing. I sleep."
-Dave Socha

GrAduation

June 12, 2004

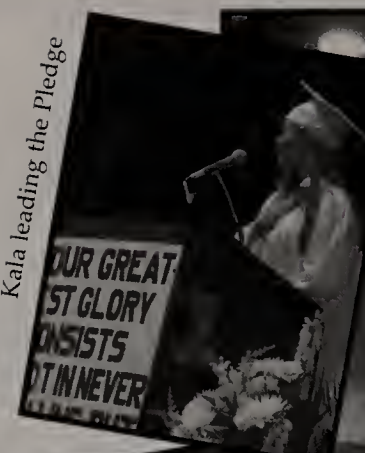

Although students were disappointed that the graduation ceremony couldn't be held at its usual place at the Wachusett football field, the Centrum Center did have its advantages. Such famous stars such as Darth Vader and the Storm Troopers graced the occasion and were available for pictures. Students gathered to help one another with their caps and arrange tassels while taking pictures and sharing some last laughs. In between pinning on flowers and lining up the Wachusett seniors were able to hear the musical stylings of Dave Socha and the photographic genius of Mr. Myers. It was the perfect ending to an idyllic four years and the last milestone on the way to the army, the workplace and college.

Class of 2004

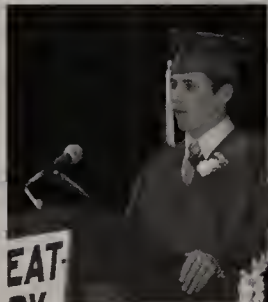

Graduation Speeches

OUR GREAT

Valedictorian
Lisa Flannery

"So, take the high school memories with you, but don't be afraid to build on them and put your own spin on things. And don't be afraid to trip up the stairs the first day of college, work for old times sake."

Andrew
McDonough
"I'm here to tell you the one thing I know for certain... is that the sun will rise again tomorrow... And I say to you, Class of 2004, goodbye and good luck. And keep on counting on the sunrise."

From high school memories to hope for the future to political change to posterity, these four speakers covered it all with eloquence and emotion.

Jeff Wong

"One's high school years are often influenced by defining events during those four years. The class of 2004 has gone to high school in yet another era defined by major national and world events."

Eika Kuwahara

"Live lives for the sake of the greater good, aware of your foundations, potential and memory hereafter. You will be astonished to find that you offered peace to those on looking ancestors; and hope to those here today."

Right: Graduates go through many emotions throughout the day. Melanie Cutler, Liz Cunningham, Meg Creedon and Julia Caruso seem to be showing them all here.

Below: Alexis gets help securing her cap making sure that it wasn't going to fall off on her way down the aisle.

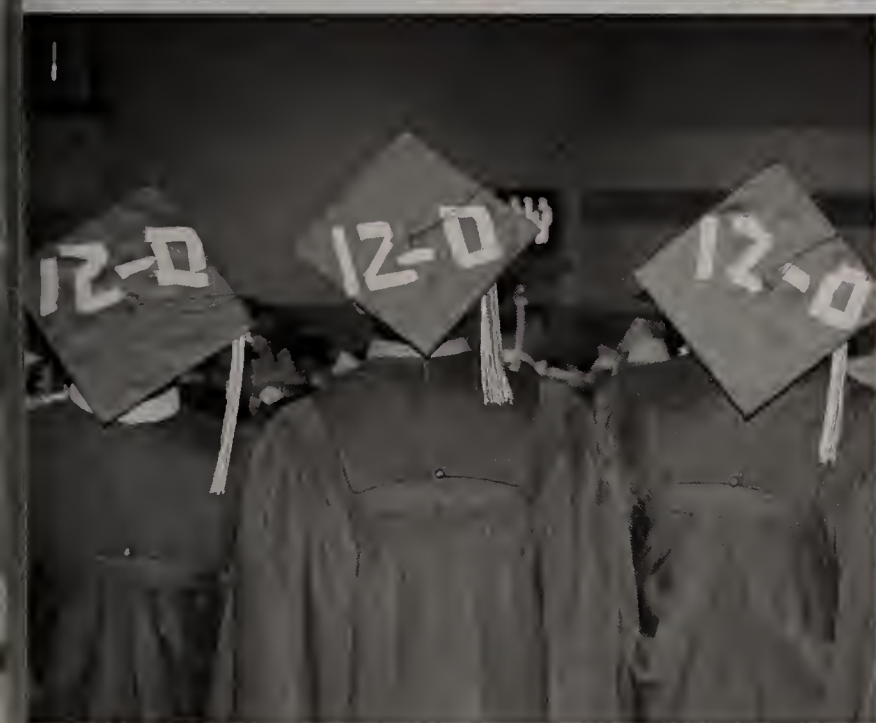

Left: Greg Rosen smiles with our most honored guests at graduation. The guests made the scene outside the Centrum out of this world.

Bottom: Tracey Samoiloff and Abbie Crocker play "You Raise Me Up" by Josh Groban as the musical selection at the ceremony.

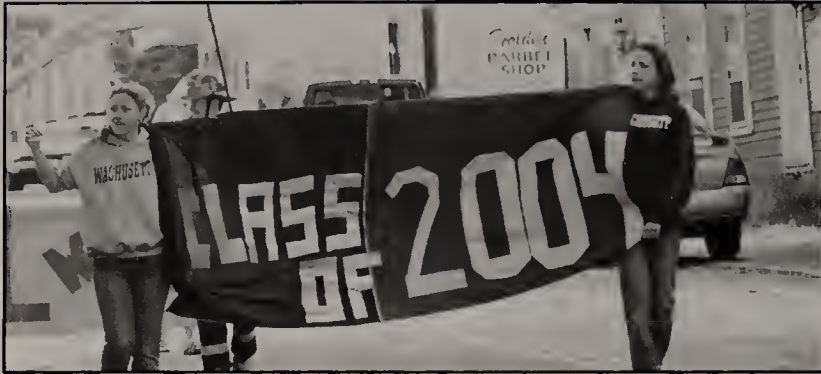

Above: Class Marshall Eika Kuwahara waits nervously holding tightly to the stick that will lead her class into graduation. She also prepares herself to make a speech during the ceremony.

Left: Members of our football team remind everyone about their undefeated season that led them to become champions at the Superbowl, by putting the team record on their caps.

Oh, the Memories...

We Will Never Forget

"Coming together is a beginning, staying together is progress, and working together is success."

-Henry Ford

Seeing is Believing

They Saw Success...

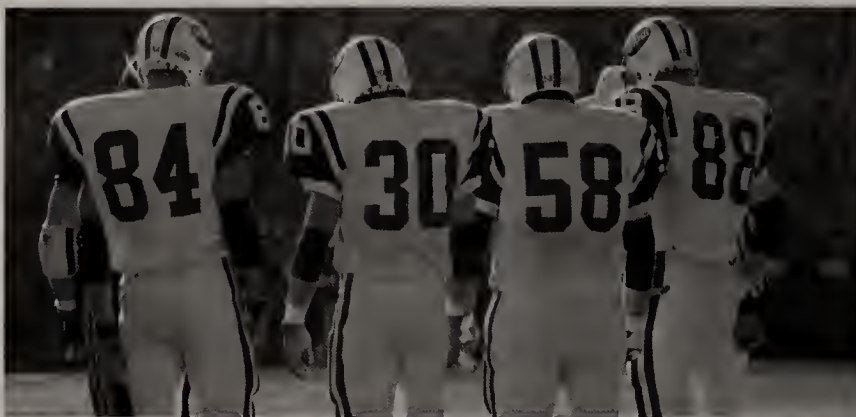

Our sports teams this year most certainly turned any skeptics into believers. We are “big, fast, Strong,” and out to win! And if we didn’t win, we held our heads high, and only worked harder. The camaraderie, strong effort, and drive demonstrated by the fall, winter, and spring sports teams were nothing short of admirable. Also, the fans, some of which made up the unforgettable “Badlands,” were very supportive. The student athletes saw success, whether it be in actual wins or simply having these incredible experiences to remember forever.

Football

If someone was asked to describe Wachusett Football's 2003 season in one word, that word would be perfect. The Mountaineers finished out their undefeated season with a record of 11-0. Victories such as the 28-7 win over Saint Peter Marian and the shutout of North Middlesex 34-0 (thanks to Chris Bashaw's 4 touchdowns) were only small indicators of what was ahead. The team also shut out Westboro to qualify for the ultimate championship, The Super Bowl. Finally, on December 13th the Mountaineer football team dominated North Hampton, 26-0, winning the first Super Bowl in the school's history. The team's success is due to the great coaching staff, senior leadership, and the dedication, will power, and talent of all the players.

Captains: Bradley Bagdis and Sean Grimes

"This is the best group of guys you could ever want to have on your side. We attribute our success to the coaching staff, the hardwork in the offseason, and the overall comraderie that we've forged between ourselves over the past four years." - Brad

Girls Track

The girls indoor track team had another great season this year, as it has come to be expected. All of the girls on the team practice hard and are fully dedicated to the team. This shows in all of the meets that they win. This year the girls won leagues and were district champions. As usual the girls had a fun season with all of their meets, especially at leagues and the relay meets. The team is still relatively young with mostly underclassmen, but is incredibly strong and full of good athletes who will continue to be an asset to future girls track teams at Wachusett.

Swimming

This year the Mountaineer swimmers and divers had an outstanding season. The year was full of personal bests and new records. "Almost everyone had their best season ever and stepped up when we needed them," says senior captain Meg Lynch. They were League Champions and came in third at the district meet. Some of the team members also made it to the State Competition meet. The season was filled with many fun and memorable moments of T-shirt dying, parties, car rides, crazy tights and Kevin Brisebois shaving his legs.

Captains: Meg Lynch and Kristen Vigeant.

The Wachusett basketball Cheerleaders still have a relatively young squad, but that does not stop them from putting on an excellent routine. They practice hard, and along with a "do it and have fun with it" attitude their work pays off. They had a really good season and are finally going to be recognized with their own banner in the gym. The girls filled the great season with some memorable moments such as the game where only Meredith, Sarah R. and Laura G. were cheering, and when Meredith picked up the referee's whistle.

Girls Basketball

The Girls basketball team had a really good season this year. The team was young and only consisted of three seniors, Grace Geene and captains Melanie Cutler and Adrienne Carpenter. This didn't stop them from giving their all and playing great however! The team made it to the District Semi-finals vs. Gardner. This season was even more special for Adrienne who celebrated her 1000th point. Off the court the girls made this season fun with pasta dinners at Adrienne's house, a sleepover at Mel's house and a celebration of Coach Bogren's fortieth birthday. Overall the girls had fun and played hard and will be missed by their captains; "We'll come back next year to watch you girls play!" says Melanie.

-Brad

The Mountaineer boys basketball team had an excellent season this year, matching hard work with talent. The boys beat longtime rival St. Johns 56-54 at WPI to become the Central Mass District Champions! This is only the second basketball team in Wachusett history to do so. After winning the Central Mass title, the team went on to play Springfield Commerce in the State Semifinals at the Mullins Center at UMASS. A large crowd of enthusiastic Mountaineer fans were there to cheer them on. Hockey Cheerleading

The Hockey Cheerleading squad had a lot of new girls and a relatively young team, but they did a great job this season. They practiced hard, worked well together and have many good memories to share. The girls had fun car rides to and from the games, not forgetting when Leah fell off the bleachers during a cheer (twice!). The girls are very proud of the hockey team and enjoy showing their support. It was an unforgettable experience that the girls will always look back on with a smile.

Boys Track and Field

The boys' track team had another successful spring due to solid performances by returning team members. The season was marked by record breaking performances in events like the two-mile, the 800 meter run and the 4X100 meter relay. As usual the team's success came from contributions from many different individuals. They finished the season 2nd in the Mid-Wach Division, 3rd in the Class A Championship, and 2nd in the All-Class Chamionsnship.

Boys Volleyball

The boys' volleyball team had an outstanding season this year and marked many "firsts" in Mountaineer volleyball history. They defeated Marlboro for the first time in team history and they beat North in the first round of the Districts, making it farther than any other Mountaineer volleyball team (in spite of many injuries throughout the season). Matt Snyder set a new school record for kills in a season and John Blanchette set a new record for blocks in a season. A belief in teamwork was the foundation for the team's success. As co-captain Alex Vernaza said, "We win as a team, we lose as a team. We feed off one another's energy and bring it to the game."

Baseball

The varsity baseball team had a strong season and ended with a record of 15-5, earning themselves a bye in the first round of the Central Mass. Division 1 tournament. They faced rivals St. John's in the quarterfinals. There were many exciting moments throughout the season including a 9 game win streak, a 4-3 win over undefeated Milford, a combined no-hitter against South High, courtesy of Steve Cadoret, Josh Davidson and Dan Wilde and a walk-off, grand slam home run by Frank Bova in a seventh inning come-from-behind victory. The varsity team with its solid core of 8 seniors certainly played many memorable games during the Spring 2004 season!

Girls Tennis

The girls tennis team had a tough season in 2004, but that did not seem to discourage the players. The girls showed up at every match, eager to play. Eika Kuwahara was inspired by this quote from her coach: "If you don't win, lose hard." and Mr. Lewis' line "I'm always with you, win or tie." Eika remembers the tennis team with fondness... "I am going to miss our team because even though our season was not the best, I think we felt the best around each other."

Captains: Eika Kuwahara, and Tracey Samoiloff

Row 1: Becca Eaton, Tracey Samoiloff, Eika Kuwahara, Julie Circosta, Cait Harvey

The boys tennis team had a very good season going to the second round of the Districts. They improved their record to 12-3 when they defeated St. Peter-Marian. The winners included Dan Wiechec, Alex Samoiloff, and Mark Desantis. Despite the many newcomers, the tennis team was able to achieve a commendable record. Chris Andrianopoulos believes that these new players will, "make a good foundation to work with for the years to come."

Captains: Chris Andrianopoulos and Craig Daigle.

Girls Lacrosse

All and all the girls lacrosse team had a memorable season. Their biggest achievement would have to be making it to the playoffs for the first time. One of the major highlights of the season was beating Westboro for the first time with an 11-7 win. Leading the way at the midfield positions were senior co-captain Ashley Martin and senior Meg Creedon. With seven wins under their belts, the team scored more points this season than last season.

Super Bowl

WRHS vs. North Hampton

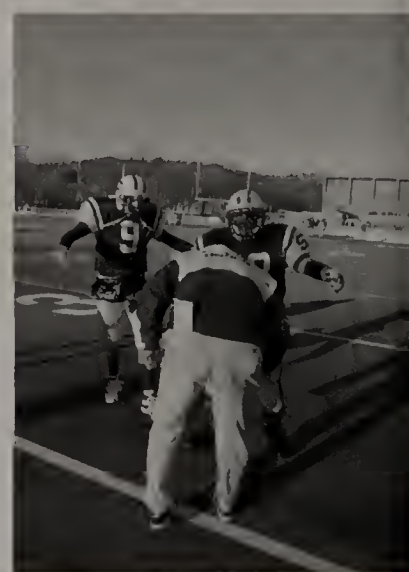

On December 13, 2003, the Wachusett Mountaineer football team played in the Super Bowl against North Hampton. The 2003 Mountaineer football team followed up their 11 and 0 undefeated season with the ultimate prize: a Super Bowl victory! This year the football team won the Super Bowl for the first time in Wachusett history. Our victory against North Hampton can be credited to the excellent coaching staff and hard working, talented players.

Seeing is Believing

They Believed in Us...

Our families are such crucial factors in who we have become. They believed that we could take our first steps, write our first paper, or go on our first date. They always believed in us while we participated in sports, clubs, or whatever crazy things we decided to try.

Our families had faith in us. As we begin the next phase of our lives, they continue to stand by us. The graduating Class of 2004 greatly appreciates the following pages of support.

original form. Though your outside appearance is changing, the qual-* ity of learning and the incredible experiences that occur within your walls will last forever. Stand tall through the changes, as will we. You will al- ways remain in our hearts.

With Gratitude,

THE CLASS OF 2004

Happy 50th!

Colophon

The Mountaineer is an annual publication by the Yearbook staff at Wachusett Regional High School, 1401 Main Street, Holden Massachusetts 01520. The towns served by the high school are Holden, Paxton, Princeton, Rutland, and Sterling. The book was distributed to the class of 2004 at a class social held in mid-August.

The book was printed in Winston-Salem, North Carolina at the Jostens Publishing Division. The press runs 500 copies. The cover was designed for our staff by Rick Brooks of the Creative Resources Department of Jostens.

Our cover is school-designed Truelife lithograph photograph mosaic. The litho-process cover has a special Ultra Matte lamination for protection and UV coating for artistic effects. The trim size is 8.5 by 11 and Smythe-sewn. It is wrapped around 120-point binder's board. The school follows the Accent Program. The front and back endsheets are #282 Kelly Green.

The paper used throughout the book is 80 pound gloss, printed with standard black ink. Thirty-two pages were printed using the standard four color process. The font used as the major style type is Palatino. Other assorted type fonts were used at the discretion of the page editor.

A current events supplement, World Beat (produced by Jostens) has been sewn in at the end of the book after page 308.

Senior portraits were taken by Wayne Myers and his associates of Myers Studio, Sterling, MA, the designated official yearbook photographer. (Other professional photographers did some of the senior portraits.) Athletics (both team and candid), clubs, organizations, faculty, and major school events were photographed at no charge to the yearbook by Myers Studio. The studio also generously provided the yearbook staff with digital CDs, developing, and equipment at no additional cost. Additional athletic, event and candid photographs were taken by members of the yearbook staff as well as donated by various members of the class of 2004, and their advisors. O'Connor School Portraits photographed the underclassmen for the student ID's and made these photos available to the yearbook staff at no cost.

The approximate cost of printing this book is $42,000. This figure includes publishing costs, freight charges, shipment of materials to North Carolina, color candid photography, expenses (purchase of film and developing costs) and other supplies. The per copy cost to the public is $65. Monies are raised through an assessment to the Senior Class per student, a parent ad and patron/sponsor solicitation campaign, and the proceeds from two soda machines in the gym corridor. These 308 pages are representative of the entire Wachusett student body and their community.

Our Thanks Too.....

Sometime back in December we said to each other, "We will have to SEE this book in print to BELIEVE we actually made it through the year!" Looks like we made it!

As first year co-advisors, we would like to take an opportunity to express our gratitude to all those people who helped us through this year.

We would like to thank Bev and Wayne Myers of Myers Studio for their prompt and professional senior portraits, the 2004 picture, athletic, and events photographs that make this book come to life. Your time and patience spent taking photos for our 2004 Mountaineer is greatly appreciated. We hope that seniors continue to use Myers Studio for their portraits.

Secondly, we would like to applaud our Jostens representatives, Arnie Lohmann and Peter Greer, our knights in shiny ties! You were both there for us at the moment's notice and your moral support meant so much to us (especially after the Deadline #1 fiasco). Your emails, phone calls and unexpected visits helped to guide us through various technical difficulties throughout the production year. In addition, we would like to thank Rick Brooks for designing this year's cover and endsheets.

We cannot forget Cathy Nicastro, our financial advisor, for managing all the yearbook orders, parent ads, and phone calls this year. Your organization and willingness to help made this transition easy and we could not have done it without you.

Additionally, we would like to express our gratitude to the WRHS staff members who have supported us: Ed McTigue, for your calm and knowledgeable guidance through the maze of our computers. And to Barry, who downloaded innumerable digital photos. We could have never gotten those pages printed out without you! Thank you also go out to Della Ritland, Nancy Grenier, Ginny Belcher, Amy Kathman, Donna Laramie and Donna Bradway for your help with lists, guidance news, announcements, identifications, etc. that saved us many hours of running around! Nancy DiLeo, for the gracious use of the comp lab after school and during meetings. A special shoutout to Nick Guerin for his help with photos and coming to visit during those long meetings before deadlines. The understanding of the entire staff of WRHS made this book possible, Thank you!

To our staff: You have made this year fun and memorable! We will never forget the excitement of developing new pages and ideas, the energy, laughter and rap music at every meeting. You made those long Tuesday and Thursday nights bearable and we are grateful for that. Katie, our Editor-in-Chief, you displayed so much maturity beyond your years, you kept us all together! You truly cared about this book, every page and that drive made those around you work harder. You are a natural leader. Amy Follet, your clipboard, organization, and ability to help wherever needed was essential to this year's book. Thank you for all the time you put in. To Sarah and Melissa, you made putting together the 400+ pictures and write-ups of your classmates seem easy and we don't know how you did it! We appreciate your ability to handle tough deadlines with grace and confidence... as well as those extra pages you took on! Brianna and Patty, we will never forget that first deadline (neither will you!) However, after that you both forged through those Picture Placer problems and added laughs to every meeting. Our Student Life editors, Holly, Jennie, and Danielle, you created original and meticulously designed pages that made all the rest of the staff strive harder to create such masterpieces. Thank you for raising the bar. Audrey, thank you for taking some pictures for us. We would like to acknowledge our other photographers, Staci and Dan, for getting sports and special events pics. Clubs and Organization pages will never be the same thanks to Joanne and Amber; you brought a unique style to the yearbook. Amber, thanks for all the comic relief you brought to those hectic Tuesdays. Kudos to Laura and Amy for all their work creating a new sports section for the 2004 book. Your pages were always in on time due to your dedication. Lara and Kelly, we appreciate your laughs after we all discovered Panel Flow! We are looking forward to working with you next year. Kayla, we appreciate you taking on the massive amount of PDAs by yourself. We have high hopes for you. And last but not least, we would like to thank Lynn Leschke for her guidance throughout the year. We felt like we could go to you at any time with questions. You made the transition a smooth one.

To the class of 2004, please thank all of the yearbook staff for their hard work and dedication in capturing a memory that lasts a lifetime. Good luck and enjoy!

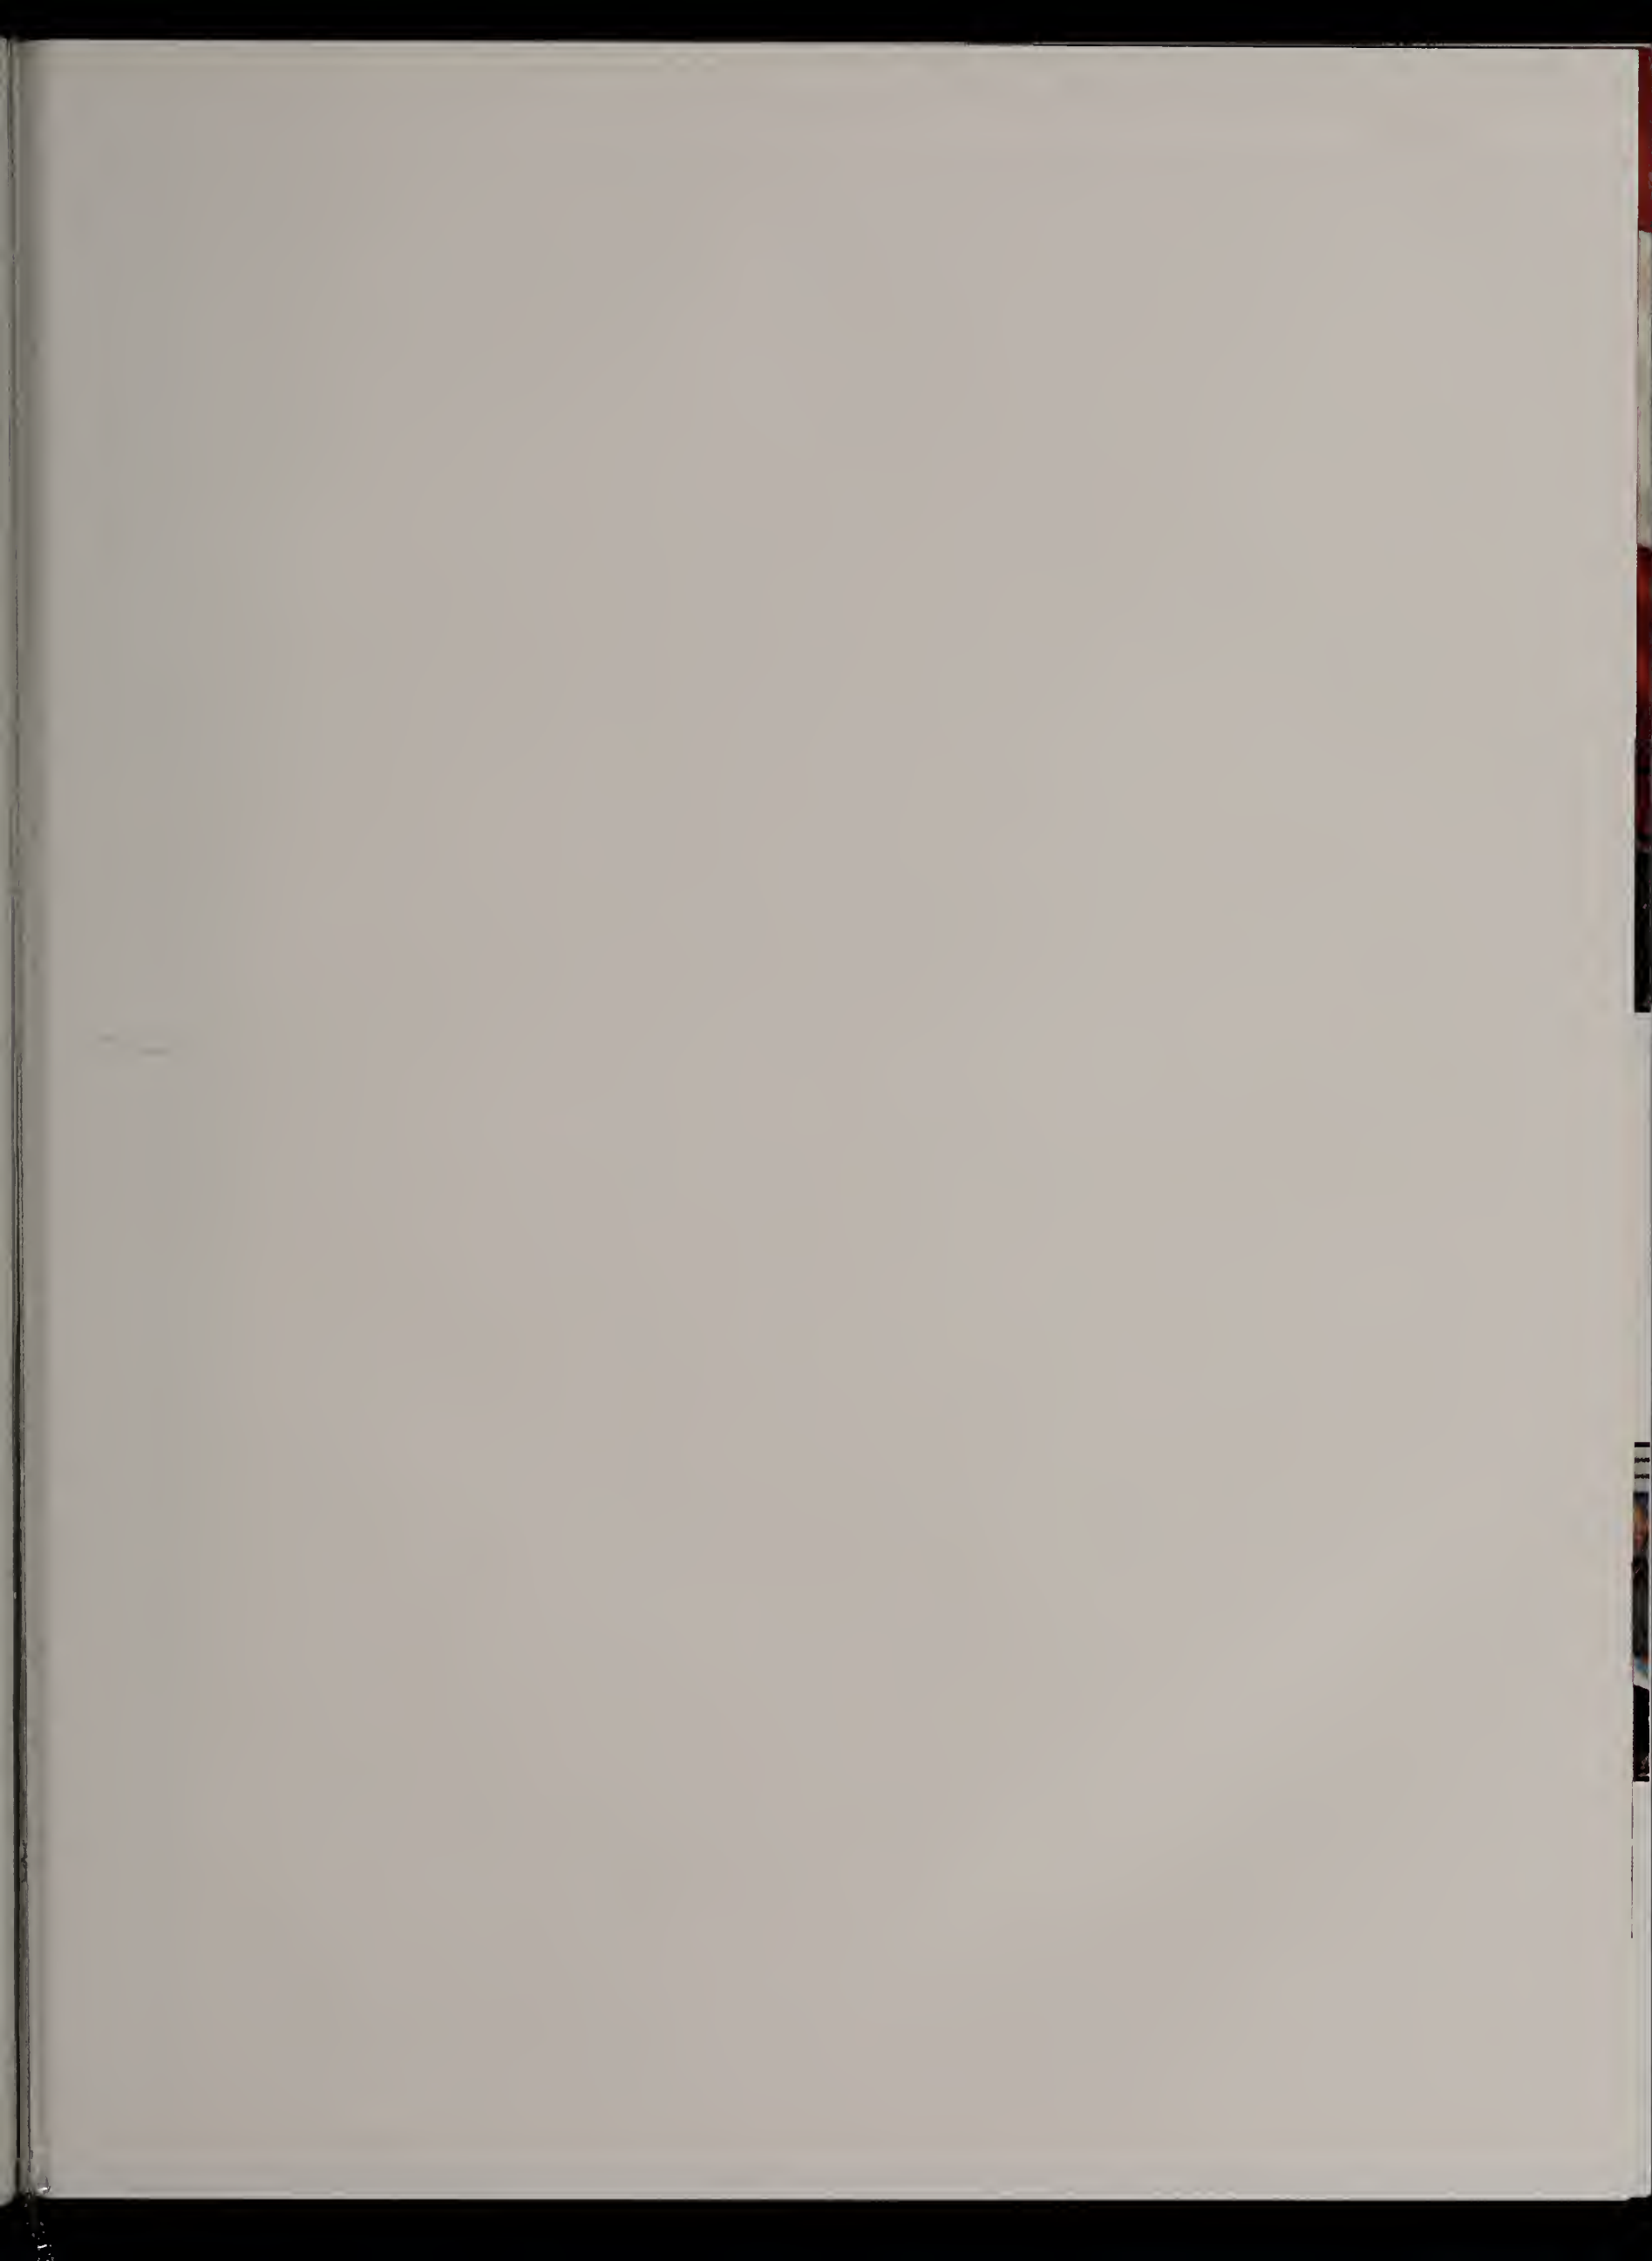

-Sasha Piccione and Christina Lee

... You better believe it!!! For us seniors, high school has come to its end. The underclassmen will soon be taking over WRHS. With a class of close to four hundred students, one may not consider it possible that a commonality lie within each and every one of us. However, there is one uniting thread, one bond that our class will always share. We went through this journey together. And though we are now going our separate ways, it was together that we experienced it all. We observed the harmony by which our school functioned every day. We felt the care and devotion of our closest friends. We witnessed the hard work and determination that it took to reach this point in our lives. We experienced it. We saw it all. WE BELIEVE.

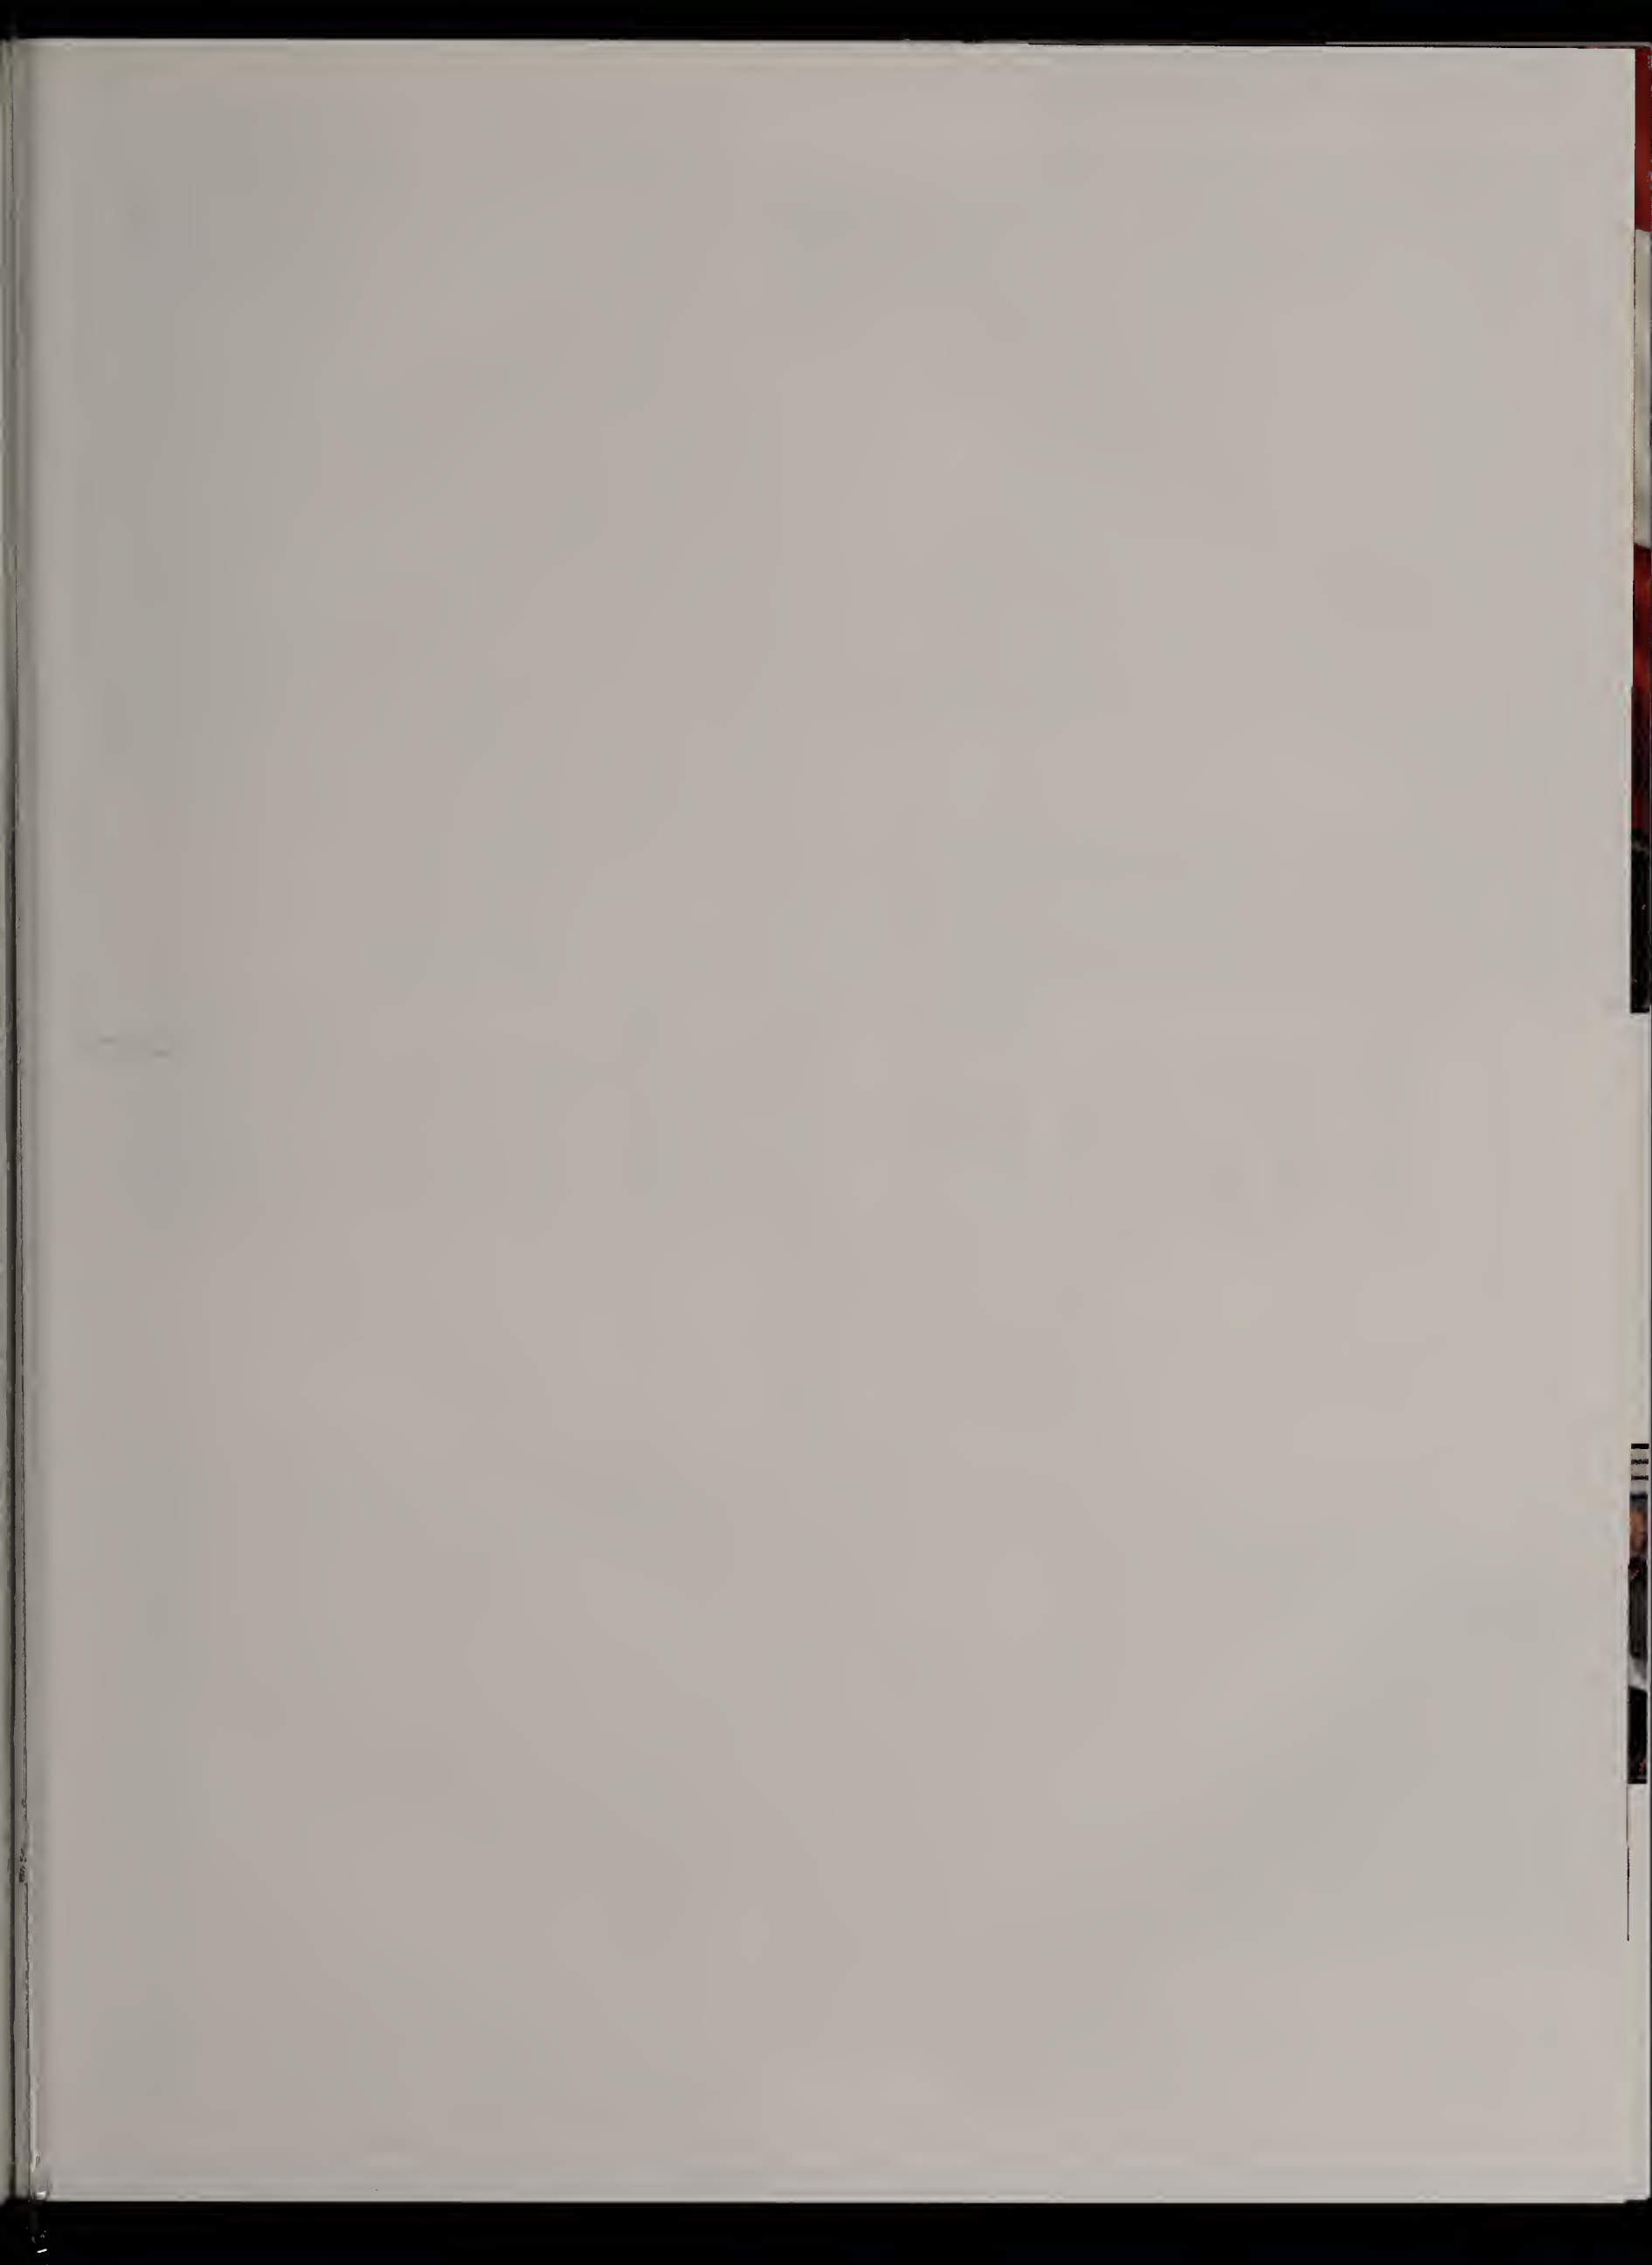

*Best Wishes,
A Fellow Believer*
